

You are invited to a talk by Dr Peter Boghossian at the Loaves and Fishes Hall, Wellington Cathedral, at 6 pm on Tuesday, 10 December. Tickets: Adults $35 and Students $20. Please see below for more details.

Supporting Social Justice - Dr Peter Boghossian argues for Social Justice

World-renowned philosopher, Dr Peter Boghossian, will give a talk, arguing for Critical Social Justice, or what is often called "Wokeism", in Wellington on Tuesday, 10 December, at 6 pm. Dr Boghossian will robustly defend such claims as "sex is assigned at birth", "children should be allowed to transition" and "every racial disparity is due to racist systems". The audience will be encouraged to offer support or challenge Dr Boghossian's positions in the Q&A that follows his talk.

Come and participate in a Socratic dialogue on Critical Social Justice with one of the world's leading exponents of Street Epistemology, the art of exploring deeply held convictions and beliefs in a non-confrontational and safe manner.

Tickets are limited, so book early to grab your spot. A highly engaging evening is guaranteed.

Buy your tickets here: Adults $35 and Students $20

<https://www.eventbookings.com/b/event/supporting-social-justice-dr-peter-boghossian-argues-for-social-justice>

About Peter Boghossian

Dr Peter Boghossian brings the tools of philosophy to people in diverse contexts, teaching them how to think through what are often seemingly intractable problems.

Dr Boghossian's teaching spans three decades, and over 30,000 students in prisons, hospitals, schools, seminaries, universities, Fortune 100 companies and small businesses.

In his popular podcast, "Conversations with Peter Boghossian", he talks to world-renowned thinkers and, on the street, Peter practices Spectrum Street Epistemology, taking his Socratic techniques directly to people all around the world.

For a sneak preview, see Dr Boghossian's recent interview on The Shape of Dialogue:

https://youtube/uV3hIPN-V0g?si=5EFDn4b_ErKjj8tC

Here's a short video about the event:

<https://youtu.be/v5HVWUiBDY?si=qle0SxixsKq9vY1s>

We look forward to seeing you there.